Benefits of investing in Global Real Estate FoF, for Indian investors

-  Unique global opportunities, not available in India – Global Real Estate represents opportunities in various sub-sectors, which are either not available in India or it lacks the global scale and depth. Senior Living, Grade A Offices, Logistics, Cold Storage Facilities, Warehousing, Data Centres, Healthcare, Last Mile Retail, Urban Apartments, Self Storage etc are some examples.
-  Potential Inflation Hedge - Real Asset whose value tends to increase as replacement cost increases over long term. Income generated for REITs has outpaced inflation in 39 out of the past 41 years[^].
-  Access to small ticket size - Apart from physical real estate (primarily residential) most retail investors in India do not have too many options to participate in the upside that real estate as a sector has to offer. A ticket size as small as ₹ 5,000/- in a FoF structure makes participation in real estate more affordable as well.
-  Dual source of Alpha - Participation through a REIT structure can offer potentially higher income opportunities. In addition, listed REITs can provide capital appreciation opportunities also, over the long-term. In the last 20 years, 40% of the performance has been through Income for listed REITs*.
-  Diversification - Provides diversification beyond the traditional stock/bond combine. Global Real Estate FoF portfolio can provide additional geographical diversification benefit as well. Real estate forms the third largest component of portfolios in developed markets at 14%[§] whereas it is negligible in the Indian context.

A Globally Diversified Real Estate Fund is a standalone asset class in itself, due to its unique characteristics. It has the potential to augment the risk-return profile, when combined with a traditional stock/bond portfolio, over the long term

The Real Estate Investment Opportunity*

A fund investing in globally diversified Real Estate across the world offers the following advantages, which can be particularly attractive in the current investing environment of rising inflation, low income, and economic re-opening:

1. Ready for Reversion Sparked by Higher Inflation

A) Reversion to the mean

- For the first 44 ½ years of the FTSE NAREIT All Equity REIT Index, REITs outperformed the S&P 500 index by nearly 2% per year.
- Over the past 5 years however, the FTSE NAREIT All Equity REITs index has underperformed S&P 500 index by 9.55% per year.
- Should returns revert to the mean, REITs could potentially outperform stocks going forward.

B) Relative Outperformance over stocks during periods of high inflation

- REITs have outperformed stocks significantly during periods of elevated inflation:
 - 3-4% inflation: REITs have outperformed stocks by 12.7% annualized.
 - 4%+ inflation: REITs outperformed stocks by 3.6% annualized.
- Inflation is currently elevated at 5.4%, an environment in which REITs have historically outperformed¹.

2. High Income that has Outpaced Inflation

A) REITs offer higher income than stocks and bonds

- REITs have historically been a good source of income versus stocks and bonds for investors who are looking for income in today's low-yield environment.

B) REIT income has outpaced inflation

- Income generated from REITs has outpaced inflation in 39 out of the past 41 years.
- Real estate rents and values tend to increase when prices do, as many leases are tied to inflation. This helps support REIT dividend growth and provides a reliable stream of income during inflationary periods.
